Sequence, Hymn 158

Sermon by the Rector

Anthem,

César Franck

O PRAISE ye the Lord. Praise God in His temple. Praise ye the Lord in the firmament of His power. Praise ye Him for His mighty acts. Praise ye Him according to His majesty.

Praise ye Him with the sound of the trumpet, praise ye Him with the psaltery and harp, praise ye Him with the timbrel, praise ye Him with the dance, praise Him with the organ and stringed instruments, praise ye Him upon the high sounding cymbals.

Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord. Hallelujah.

Recessional, Hymn 509

Postlude, Final, Symphonie II.

Vierne

This was exquisitely rendered. There are about fifty voices in the choir. The soprano is unusual.

Hymn 160

Sermon by Fr. Whitehead

Anthem,

Martin

HAIL, gladdening Light, of His pure glory poured,
Who is the Immortal Father, Heavenly, Blest,
Holiest of Holies, Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Now we are come to the sun's hour of rest,
The lights of evening round us shine,
We hymn the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit Divine;
Worthiest art Thou at all times to be sung
With undefiled tongue,
Son of our God, Giver of Life, alone:

Therefore in all the world Thy glories, Lord, they own. Amen.

Solemn Procession, Hymn 655

Te Deum in E

Parker

Recessional, Hymn 22

Postlude, Allegro, Symphonie II.

Vierne

"OURSELVES YOUR SERVANTS FOR JESUS' SAKE."

This morning I hope to preach on "How God Is One."
Fr. Whitehead is evening Preacher.

This afternoon I am to preach the anniversary sermon in Christ Church, Swansea.

To-morrow is the Feast of S. Barnabas, transferred from to-day. There will be masses at 7.30 and 9.30, and a brief address at Even-song.

Thursday is the Feast of Corpus Christi. There will be Masses at 7, 7.30 and 9.30. On that day the national festival of the Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament will be observed at St. Stephen's Church, Providence, Bishop Weller, the Superior-General, presiding. Any members of our ward of the C. B. S. who can attend may be sure of a hearty welcome.

Tuesday Morning I am to deliver the Commencement Address at Rogers Hall, Lowell.

My Friday evening lecture will be on "Superstitions of To-day."

To-day marks the climax of the Christian year. We have traced the earthly life of Our Lord from His Nativity to His Ascension; we have exulted, ten day later, in the Pentecostal Gift; and now, on the Octave of Pentecost, we glorify God for the full revelation of the Mystery of the Divine Being, the Eternal Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, Three Persons and One God. The revelation of this wonderful truth is foreshadowed in the Old Testament, and even in the religions of the Gentiles; but only the Incarnation made possible its full declaration. "Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is one Lord" is as true for us as for ancient Israel; we, too, confess "One Lord and His Name One." But that Name is the Name pronounced by Jesus Christ: it is the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. And there is no other possible explanation of that Name, or of all Our Lord's sayings in connection therewith except this doctrine, which the Holy Catholic Church has ever professed. Those who reject Jesus as God-made-Man must reject His teaching concerning the Blessed Trinity. Conversely, no belief in His Deity is rationally possible which does not carry with it acceptance of this dogma.
